Join us for the Cultural Heritage Volunteer Recruitment Fair at the James A. Garfield National Historic Site in Mentor. This event will be a “one stop shop” for attendees looking for volunteer outlets offering history, nature-related and other cultural opportunities.

April 26, 2008

NOON—5:00 P.M.

Participants include: RSVP of Lake County, The James A. Garfield National Historic Site, The Holden Arboretum, Lake County Historical Society, Perry Historical Society, Willoughby Historical Society, Willoughby Area Welcome Center, Madison Historical Society, Lake County Humane Society, The Indian Museum, Lake Metroparks and Little Red Schoolhouse in Willoughby. Each table will be staffed by a knowledgeable person from that organization who can answer questions about the site, and share the variety of volunteer needs that are available.
